“He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick – no food, no sack, no money in their belts.” Mark 6:8

Imagine taking nothing but a stick when you go on a trip. The Apostles must have really trusted in God’s providential care. Think of all the material things “we can’t live without” in today’s world. We make our life’s journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. Putting God first in everything and putting our money and possessions second gives us freedom because we don’t become “slaves” in wanting to acquire more things.

“ELEMENTS OF THE CATHOLIC MASS”

Episode 27

My Sacrifice and Yours

At the end of the Preparation of the Offerings, the priest says to the people: “Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours (meum ac vestrum sacrificium) may be acceptable to God the Almighty Father.” There are not two sacrifices. Rather, we share in the singular sacrifice of Christ, each in a unique way. If you would like to access this episode ahead of time, please go to: <https://www.elementsofthecatholicmass.com/episodes>

World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly - 2024

Pope Francis established a World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly which took place for the first time on Sunday, July 25, 2021.

The World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly will be celebrated for the fourth time in 2024 on Sunday, July 28 – the Sunday closest to the Feast of Saints Joachim and Anne, Grandparents of Jesus.

Pope Francis released the theme for his message for the 2024 World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly: “Do not cast me off in my old age”. (cf. Psalm 71.9)

Come and join us on July 28, 2024 for the 9:30 a.m. Sunday Liturgy during which Fr. Damian Breen will give a special blessing to the grandparents and the elderly of our Corpus Christi Parish Community. Let us gather for fellowship after the Eucharistic celebration in the church hall.

Children and parents – bring the grandparents to this special Holy Mass. Let us thank them for the gifts of their presence in our lives.

Divine Mercy Prayer Group
Sunday, July 21, 2024
Church Hall 3:00-4:30 pm

Divine Mercy Chaplet, Litany of Trust and other prayers. Reflection & Discussion: Miracles of Mercy. In the third meditation, we will reflect on how we ourselves can become better and better living signs of God’s mercy, living miracles, as it were, by understanding and taming the emotion of anger. Light refreshments will be served.

We are in need of Lectors at the Saturday & Sunday 5:00 pm Mass. If you are interested in joining this ministry, please call the parish office or see Fr. Damian.

Episode 27: My Sacrifice and Yours

SUMMARY

At the end of the Preparation of the Offerings, the priest says to the people: “Pray, brothers and sisters, that my sacrifice and yours (meum ac vestrum sacrificium) may be acceptable to God the Almighty Father.” There are not two sacrifices. Rather, we share in the singular sacrifice of Christ, each in a unique way. The Roman Missal makes clear that the people offer the sacrifice together with the priest. The people participation in the offering is sacramentalized by the offertory procession in which the people present not only bread and wine, but what these gifts symbolize: the offering of themselves. The priest then takes these gifts to the altar and presents them to God at the place of total self-giving, the altar of sacrifice. The gift of the people is joined to that of the priest and together joined to the eternal offering of Christ, thus highlighting the common priesthood of the Faithful, who are enabled by virtue of baptism to offer prayer and sacrifice. This offering of priest and people occurs first and fundamentally in the heart. It is the total giving of oneself to God in union with Christ.

Roman Missal

In the celebration of Mass the faithful form a holy people, a people of God’s own possession and a royal Priesthood, so that they may give thanks to God and offer the unblemished sacrificial Victim not only by means of the hands of the Priest but also together with him and so that they may learn to offer their very selves.

General Instruction, n° . 95

It is desirable that the participation of the faithful be expressed by an offering, whether of bread and wine for the celebration of the Eucharist or of other gifts to relieve the needs of the Church and of the poor.

Virgil Michel, osb.

“The externals of the liturgy are there to express and reveal the internal, they are the visible embodiment of the divine powers exercised in all liturgical functions, the visible expression of the sentiments uniting the members of the mystical body of Christ among themselves and with their Head.”

IN THE TRADITION

“With contrite heart and humble spirit
let us be received;
As though it were burnt offerings of rams
and bulls,
or tens of thousands of fat lambs,
So let our sacrifice be in your presence today
and find favor before you...”

Daniel 3:39-40

“I urge you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship.”

Romans 12:1

“... all spiritual and mature Christians know that they are a royal race and are sharers in the office of the priesthood. For what is more king-like than to find yourself ruler over your body after having surrendered your soul to God? And what is more priestly than to promise the Lord a pure conscience and to offer him in love unblemished victims on the altar of one’s heart?”

Pope Leo the Great
Sermon 4

THE TEACHING OF THE CHURCH

✝ “...The only perfect sacrifice is the one that Christ offered on the cross as a total offering to the Father’s love and for our salvation. By uniting ourselves with his sacrifice we can make our lives a sacrifice to God.”

Catechism of the Catholic Church (CCC), n°. 2100

✝ “With docile hearts, then, let all Christians
hearken to the voice of their Common Father, who would have them, each and every one,
intimately united with him as they approach the altar of God, professing the same faith,

obedient to the same law, sharing in the same Sacrifice with a single intention and one sole desire.”

Pius XII
Mediator Dei, 12

✝ “... all the faithful should be aware that to participate in the Eucharistic sacrifice is their chief duty and supreme dignity, and that not in an inert and negligent fashion, giving way to distractions and day-dreaming, but with such earnestness and concentration that they may be united as closely as possible with the High Priest [...] And together with Him and through Him let them make their oblation, and in union with Him let them offer up themselves.”

Pius XII
Mediator Dei, 80

IN THE PRAYER OF THE CHURCH

Sanctify graciously these gifts, O Lord, we pray,
and, accepting the oblation
of this spiritual sacrifice,
make of us an eternal offering to you.

Prayer over the Offerings, Saturday of the Second Week of Easter

QUESTIONS FOR DISCUSSION

1. How conscious are you of offering yourself totally to God?
2. Why is the Lord’s sacrifice the “perfect sacrifice”?
